PETALING JAYA: Merdeka baby Thanuja Ananthan has her heart wrapped around Malaysia.

"I have travelled to many places and I can say that there is no place like Malaysia.

"I am always happy to be back home. To me, the weather, food, people and opportunities are the best here!" said the former Miss World Malaysia 2009.

The TV presenter and animal advocate, who went to a national school, said the warmth of Malaysians was truly something special.

She has good friends from all races and she enjoys their company very much.

"My friends and I still love sharing food and eating it with our friends.

gers. We simply enjoy the company of one another.

"If we do not take care of each other and our own home country, where are we going to go? To me, it is that simple," said Thanuja.

This Aug 14, the 30-year-old and her friends from school days will be getting together at the Anak-Anak Malaysia Walk 2016.

She urges other Malaysians to join her for the walk – to walk for unity, harmony and tolerance.

The Anak-Anak Malaysia Walk 2016, to be held ahead of the National Day celebrations, will kick off at the Bukit Bintang City Centre on Aug 14.

The 3.4km walk, starting from the junction of Jalan Imbi and Jalan Pudu at the site of the former Pudu Jail, will be flagged off by Kuala Lumpur mayor Datuk Seri Mohd Mhd Amin Nordin Abd Aziz.

#AnakAnakMalaysia Walk is organised by Star Media Group in collaboration with Ecoworld.

Other sponsors for the event include Car Sponsor: Proton, Gold Sponsor: Panasonic and Silver Sponsors: Tenaga Nasional and YES.
