MALAYSIANS should come together to celebrate the spirit of unity and 59 years of independence by participating in the Anak-Anak Malaysia Walk.

Tenaga Nasional Bhd (TNB), which is one of the main sponsors of the walk, contributed RM30,000 to the event which will be held at Bukit Bintang City Centre on Aug 14.

TNB corporate affairs and communication senior general manager Datuk Aminuddin Amin said the energy provider was happy to be a part of this meaningful event which invokes the spirit of unity and togetherness among Malaysians as the nation celebrates 59 years of independence.

"As one of the leading GLCs in the country, we have always been supportive of initiatives that contributes to the nation and peoples' benefits.

"When we were first approached by the Star Media Group to sponsor the Anak-Anak Malaysia Walk, we were more than willing to participate and contribute to the event which we believe is a fundamental thing to do," added Aminuddin.

He said another reason TNB decided to sponsor the Anak-Anak Malaysia Walk was to embrace the peace and harmony of the nation as the company always believed in the saying "together we stand, divided we fall".

"This event will bring together the multiracial community of Malaysia to believe in one thing; which is the fact that unity will preserve peace and harmony of this country," said Aminuddin.

Besides embracing the National Day spirit, the Anak-Anak Malaysia programme also reminds Malaysians the need to maintain a healthy lifestyle.

"TNB has also adopted several wellness programmes where we are constantly urging our staff to be healthy and fit.

"One week before the Anak-Anak Malaysia Walk, TNB will be launching the TNB Wellness Programme all over the nation involving our staff and their families to participate in walkathon and cycling," said Aminuddin.

"Since the Anak-Anak Malaysia Walk falls on the week after our wellness programme, we will send between 50 and 100 employees from our company to participate in the walk as a sign of support towards our nation."

Aminuddin also said all "anak-anak Malaysia" should be thankful for being blessed with a multiracial country that is peaceful and united.

The people, he added must love their country at all times.
