

Date	:	10 November 2013
Title	:	Uniten honours Lam Thye
Publication	:	New Straits Times
Page	:

Uniten honours Lam Thye

General, New Straits Times

Published: Sunday, November 10, 2013

Available at : Uniten honours Lam Thye - General - New Straits Times http://www.nst.com.my/nation/general/uniten-honours-lam-thye-1.396535#ixzz2mYyaqn2V

PUTRAJAYA: National Institute of Occupational Safety and Health (NIOSH) chairman Tan Sri Lee Lam Thye was conferred an honorary doctorate for human development by Universiti Tenaga Nasional (Uniten) at Dewan Seri Sarjana, Putrajaya Campus, yesterday.

Upon receiving his honorary doctorate from Uniten pro chancellor Tan Sri Leo Moggie, Lee spoke about how the development of human resources was a distinctive feature of all organisations.

The 16th Uniten convocation, which began yesterday and runs till Tuesday, saw some 1,940 graduates obtaining their degrees.

Since its inception in 1999, Uniten has produced 19,465 graduates.

NEWSPAPER CLIPPING UNITEN 2013

Date	:	10 November 2013
Title	:	Uniten honours Lam Thye
Publication	:	New Straits Times
Page	:

Tan Sri Lee Lam Thye (left) receiving an honorary doctorate from Uniten pro chancellor Tan Sri Leo Moggie at the convocation ceremony yesterday. Pic by Rosela Ismail