

Date	:	18 May 2017
Title	:	University to hold open day at its Putrajaya campus
Publication	:	The Star
Page	:	12

A Uniten officer helping a student to register online during Uniten's previous open day.

University to hold open day at its Putrajaya campus

UNIVERSITI Tenaga Nasional (Uniten) is holding an open day this Saturday at its Putrajaya Campus.

It will be held at the university's administration building from 9am to 4pm, and the one-day event will give visitors an opportunity to find out more about its courses.

Programmes include exhibitions and education career fairs by the College of Foundation and Diploma Studies (CFDS), College of Engineering (COE), College of Information Technology and Computer Science (CSIT), College of Business Management and Accounting (COBA) as well as College of Graduate Studies (COGS).

Information on financial assistance and sponsorship will also be available at the exhibition booths.

Additionally, the first 200 visitors to register will be exempted from paying a RM300 commitment fee while the processing fee will be waived for students studying in Uniten.

Offer letters will also be given to qualified students who fulfil the minimum requirements on the spot to further their studies at the university.