Fundraising dinner held in aid of poor deserving students

MORE than 300 people attended an endowment fundraising dinner entitled "An Evening Illuminating Dreams" organised by Yayasan Canselor Uniten (YCU).

The event held at Tenera Hotel in Bandar Baru Bangi was in aid of deserving students in the B40 income group.

Present were representatives from Tenaga Nasional Bhd (TNB) subsidiaries and companies as well as Universiti Tenaga Nasional (Uniten) alumni and students.

YCU is offering four sponsorship packages this year, namely Silver (RM8,000), Gold (RM10,000), Platinum (RM15,000) and Diamond (RM50,000).

The Gold, Platinum and Diamond package sponsors presented mock cheques to TNB and YCU Board of Trustees chairman Tan Sri Leo Moggie.

"We hope our efforts to raise funds and help financially challenged students will be supported by corporations.

"All proceeds to YCU are tax deductible," said its director,

Mohamad Ishak Mohamad Ibrahim.

YCU was set up in 2009 to develop and empower individuals through education. It aims to achieve its fundamental objective of acquiring, administering and distributing funds to provide education opportunities for deserving Malaysians.

Contributions to YCU can be made to CIMB Islamic Bank Berhad account 8600697884 or call YCU executive officer Faizah Jaafar on 03-89212051, or email faizah.jaafar@uniten.edu.my.
