60,000 Kelantan poor receive free electricity

BACHOK: Some 60,000 poor people living in the remote areas of Kelantan are getting free electricity through a subsidy payment by the federal government, said Tenaga Nasional Bhd (TNB) manager in Kelantan, Datuk Md Yuslan Md Yusof. He said the federal government allocated RM620,000 a month for electricity subsidy for the poor with usage of not more than RM20 a month. "Most of them are farmers and rubber tappers in Gua Musang, Jeli, Kuala Krai and Tanah Merah," he told reporters at TNB's Baiti Jannati programme in Kampung Repek Hujung here yesterday.
